

Roman Kepczyk Expands Role with Right Networks as Director of Firm Technology Strategy

HUDSON, N.H (November 2, 2018) – Accounting technology leader Roman Kepczyk, recently named to Accounting Today's list of Top 100 Influential People for the 13th year, has expanded his role with Right Networks as Director of Firm Technology Strategy.

Kepczyk, a veteran of Xcentric, which was acquired by Right Networks in 2017, has spent more than 30 years helping firms throughout North America effectively use information technology and accounting applications to optimize their tax, audit and administrative production workflows. He will extend that expertise in an expanded role with Right Networks focused on both continuing to guide the firms on their journey to the cloud and providing firm input to inform the evolution of Right Networks offers.

“Technology advances related to the cloud, big data analytics, and integrated software applications are creating tremendous workflow efficiencies, allowing accountants the opportunity to improve firm production, as well as assume advisory roles,” said Kepczyk. “My goal with Right Networks is to help firms navigate, and benefit from, these advances while taking their feedback as crucial input to the evolution of the Right Networks offer roadmap.”

Kepczyk was named by INSIDE Public Accounting as one of the profession's Most Recommended Consultants for each of the years from 2005 through 2017, and CPA Practice Advisors Top 25 Thought Leaders from 2011 through 2018. He is also an Advisory Board Member to the CPA Firm Management Association (formerly the Association for Accounting Administration) and has served on the Board of Directors of the Arizona Society of CPAs. On a technical level, Kepczyk is an AICPA Certified Information Technology Professional (CITP) and a Certified Lean Six Sigma Black Belt (LSS BB).

“Roman is a technology and accounting expert of the highest level and Right Networks is extremely fortunate to have him on our team,” said Joel Hughes, CEO of Right Networks. “Beyond his expertise, he possesses a genuine enthusiasm for the profession and a customer-centric approach, making him an invaluable resource to our clients.”
